

- A new growth capital fund for high-tech companies – the Innovation Investment Fund;
- Investment in the swift rollout of high speed broadband to almost every home and business in Britain within a few years;
- Strengthening our support to UK exporters, especially in the emerging economies.